Situated within the grounds of Villa Ca' Amata park, this course is on one of the 18th century Venice's most prestigious architectural sites. The architectural elements such as walls, bridges and waterfalls lend an absolutely exclusive charm to this course. Particular care has been taken in choosing the trees, shrubs and flower surrounding the course. Covering a total area of 50 hectares, each hole has two teeing areas, ensuring a diverse and technical course and making it accessible to golfers of all levels. Bassano del Grappa visit to the oldest Italian Grappa distillery.

Ranked among the top 10 courses in Italy, it hosted the International Open in 1956 – 1960 and 1974 and The Italian Seniors Open in 2004 and 2007. One of the oldest Italian golf courses. It never gets you bored: variety of shots, always different for the prospective, variety of feet positions and game strategies with sand on the fairways that gives extraordinary naturalness to the game. In fact, Venice Golf Club is constructed on sand dunes (sand dunes oasis in Lido is protected by WWF), making it one of the few true links courses in Italy. It offers panoramic views with splendid maritime pine trees and other mature vegetation. Cocktail in a traditional enoteca before the gondola ride to the restaurant (NOYO)
